You need to get off my mind

When love is at its fight, it's never good enough
I always seem to find the right formula for puttin' up

I try to love you, baby, in every way, every way
I try to satisfy you, honey,
knew you wouldn't stay, I knew you wouldn't stay

I'm glad to close it right, your hate out on me If you really wanna find someone else, I'll find some company I'm in a hurry out, wouldn't worry
'bout a little hiccup

Why can't you see, why can't you see that I am sick of it?

I try to love you, baby, in every
way, every way
I try to satisfy you, honey,
knew you wouldn't stay, I knew you wouldn't stay (2x)

What I was wrong about is that , you'd stay...

Girl I do not know where you're running to I'm your finish line, I'm the one for you
If you do me wrong, if I'm cruel to you You're a fool for me, I'm a fool
for you

Shawty been takin' 'bout her new adress
But options do not mean that they're competition
The master key perfectly fits your ignition Forever under the greatest possession

You are not foreign at all to the sentence
Hopefully this is the first time you've did this (shit)
