

Has Anyone Seen My Wings

The New Amsterdams

i'm a saint, i'm a bonified seraphim an angel on a bar stool, anyone seen my wings? i'm always losing the damn things i'm the glue i'm a permanent fixture i'm an anchor in the concrete if i went to find my fate the foundation would break alies
i never had none but that would be one to see yeah
i'm your fate yeah, your looking in the future there's a bitter old man who's under your skin but don't let him in capsize
did anyone catch me?
nobody broke my fall
yeah
i'm a saint on a mission from the head man you got a shoe start running boy leave him to us leave them in your dust
