People tell me I outta know better It's so hard to keep it together

I've got this feeling cause my phone keeps ringing and my mind keeps dreaming, and my soul's just screaming out Hey oh, hey hey oh

Just for the record, I've got a clean record I know its gonna c hange and I can't be blamed

There goes my halo

Things are about to change...

Gonna go all night, twilight to daylight
Crank it to eleven, rock my way to heaven
And I won't stop 'til I get my mugshot
Money in my pocket, just to too late stop it

Its so easy, drinking tequila looking at Tila At the last bar, I was so famous, I was a rockstar
And I lost my jacket when they played Michael Jackson Dancing a ll alone cause I own the zone
Singing hey oh, hey hey oh
Gonna jump in a fountain, climb every mountain
Cutting every line cause I'm out of my mind
Singing hey oh, hey hey oh
Cause that's just how I roll...

Gonna go all night, twilight to daylight Crank it to eleven, rock my way to heaven And I won't stop 'till I get my mugshot Money in my pocket, just to too late stop it

And I've never seen a girl look as fine as you And I'm gonna get your name as my next tattoo And I wanna spend the rest of my life with you Before the cops come and take me away

Gonna go all night, twilight to daylight
Crank it to eleven, rock my way to heaven
And I won't stop 'till I get my mugshot
Money in my pocket, just to too late stop it tonight

Just to too late stop it tonight

Gonna go all night, twilight to daylight

Crank it to eleven, rock my way to heaven

And I won't stop 'till I get my mugshot

Money in my pocket, just to too late stop it tonight
