

The Only Thing We Own

The Notwist

Then, children began to smile
Threw out all the garbage he could find

They can't remember their name
I can't remember my name

I never be trapped under the garbage
Never

Guess there are people after the humans
I can't even restretch
It's a stretch

It's a stretch

The only thing we own is sleep

The only thing we own is sleep

Stretch
The only thing we own is sleep
