

A Brand New Star (Up in Heaven Tonight)

The Oak Ridge Boys

There's a brand new star
Up in heaven tonight
Shining down on us
Glorious and bright
I'm gonna miss you every day
But I know that you're alright
There's a brand new star
Up in heaven tonight

There's a piece in my heart
Finally moving on
A calming-like conscious
That sings my song
No longer will you struggle
No longer will you fight
There's a brand new star
Up in heaven tonight

Let the love shine down
(Let the love shine down)
Let the love shine down
(Let the love shine down)
Let the love shine down
(Let the love shine down)
Let the love shine down
(Let the love shine down)

I'm gonna miss you every day
But I know that you're alright
There's a brand new star
Up in heaven tonight

There's a billion clouds
The sun is shining through
Speaks to my soul
In a voice that sounds like you
When I laid my head down
And gently closed my eyes
There's a brand new star
Up in heaven tonight

Let the love shine down
(Let the love shine down)
Let the love shine down
(Let the love shine down)
Let the love shine down
(Let the love shine down)
Let the love shine down
(Let the love shine down)

I'm gonna miss you every day
But I know that you're alright
There's a brand new star
Up in heaven tonight

Let the love shine down
(Let the love shine down)

Let the love shine down
(Let the love shine down)
Let the love shine down
(Let the love shine down)
Let the love shine down
(Let the love shine down)

I'm gonna miss you every day
But I know that you're alright
There's a brand new star
Up in heaven tonight

I'm gonna miss you every day
But I know that you're alright
There's a brand new star
Up in heaven tonight
There's a brand new star
Up in heaven tonight
