

Love Athena

The Olivia Tremor Control

Look down deep inside the crystal clear water flowing 'round from your head Looks like again this time I'll have to back track on what it was that I said

I would never ever compromise, kiss the clouds of love,
or fall for someone like you Now I find my eyes are open and my ship is coming in with my beautiful love aboard

Shining like Athena in a silver suit of armor Her love is like a nail and now I'll bring down the hammer Sprouting like a flower on a hill top is where I'll find her Where I'll plant a seed and watch it grow into the streaming light of love.
