

Back On The Road Again

The Osmonds

Back on the road again,
seems like I've always been.
Back on the road again,
singing my song again.

Travelin' is all I've known.
Anywhere is my home.
Livin' the life I live
is giving me life to live.

Love and laughter,
pain and tears.
All those people,
all those years.

Faces that never end,
coming to see a friend.
They seem to know me well,
Looks like I'll never sell.

Love and laughter,
pain and tears.
All those people,
all those years.

I'm back on the road again.

Back on the road again.
