

Better Than Nothing

The Outfield

It's better than nothing, girl
It's better than nothing at all
It's better than nothing, girl
It's better than nothing

Let's find a hideaway tonight
Somewhere where we can be together
I'm tired of waiting for the right time
If this is not the Ritz, whatever

I want to hold more than your hand
I want to touch more than emotion
You don't need words to understand
This hole might be run-down and broken

Don't think because I just can't wait that I don't care
This isn't meant to be a backseat love affair
