

Who Would You Be?

The Outfield

Who would you be?
Given half a chance
Seventeen
And full of confidence
Absolutely unafraid of no one
Fighting without fear
For the time and moment

So what you gonna do about it?
Chase a shadow till it's almost gone
So what you gonna do about it?
Loser, loser

Where would you be?
If you had the choice
Buenos Aires
Rising up rejoice
A Champs Elyse subterranean
Don't be waiting for tomorrow
That's a one way ticket home yea

So what you gonna do about it?
Chase a shadow till it's almost gone
So what you gonna do about it?
Loser, loser

Spin the wheel
Spin the bottle
Start it up
Aristotle
On a misty mountain hillside
We can catch a falling star
We can watch the sun rise

So what you gonna do about it?
Chase a shadow till it's almost gone
So what you gonna do about it?
Loser, loser
