

The Sixth Seal

The Paramedic

ALPHA!

I know what will become of us.

There's nothing we can do this time.

His word was spoken and it split the sky.

And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal and, lo, there was a great earthquake and the sun became black as sackcloth hair and the moon became as blood.

Oh what have we done?

We should have heeded your warning.

But now all hope is lost.

The mountains fall, and the seas shall burn.

Tell me is this not what we have earned.

The moon grows red, and the sun shall break.

Immortal, my soul is yours to take.

OH MY GOD!

Father, forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Deliver us from evil. God save our souls.

Our decisions have cost us dearly, and now we pay the price. We can no longer seek refuge here. Don't close your eyes, I can't be left behind.

And with their hands raised high...

He said unto his children...

I AM YOUR GOD

Glorifica Mus Te

Gloria In Excelsis Deo
