

All the Wars

The Pineapple Thief

I am still frightening to find out the way
The promise, your promise form wishing the way
And all the wars come back to me
And all the wars come back to me

And no one is moving to the end of our days
No crying, no fall out
Just the darkness the days
And all the wars come back to me
And all the wars come back to me
And if I am to reach
If I am to reach
If I am to be
With you

And all the wars come back to me
And all the wars come back to me
And it's all what I have?
And it's all what I have?

I am reach the final peace with you
I am reach the final peace with you
