The Pineapple Thief

This is the shelter, they are sheltering you
From what is buried, buried deep inside of you

Cause you gave everything you could
You gave everything
You couldn't know what was about to tear itself apart

So I find you under the cover of everything you loved so much
So I find you under the cover of night
I thought I'd lost you, I thought I'd lost you to Everything you've lost, your broken heart
I'd thought I'd lost you under the cover of night

You gave everything you could
You gave everything you could
You gave everything you could
You gave everything you could
You gave everything you could
You gave everything
You couldn't know what was about to tear itself apart

So I find you under the cover of Everything you loved so much
So I find you under the cover of night
I thought I'd lost you, I thought I'd lost you to Everything you've lost, your broken heart

I'd thought I'd lost you under the cover
