I wanna say how much I need just a break, a little break
I wanna say how much I need just a taste, a little taste I wanna go away and try just to waste a little time I wanna go away and find a place for you and I so we row
and row (x6)
I start a song from beating you to the ground, to the ground I find a laugh when no one makes a sound not a single sound
so we row
and we row
to the edge of the world

so we row and row
