

Finding My Way

The Pipettes

I'm finding my way to love you again
I'm finding my way to forgive you
I'm finding my way in the dark lake, I'm
But at least I am finding it with you

That's the way you hold me, baby
Change your lies, you told me, boy
When can I ever trust you, maybe never

Still you got me goin' on
Can this feeling be so wrong?
All I want's a love that lasts forever

Now we're together again
I am taking my chances and I'm

I'm finding my way to love you again
I'm finding my way to forgive you
I'm finding my way in the dark lake, I'm
But at least I am finding it with you

I wanna know it's not the same
Can the love we had remain?
I'll just wait for your heart to amaze me

So if you really love me, baby
Say that you love me, boy
Give me one more maybe, I'll go crazy

Because I know I need
A little reassurance while I'm

I'm finding my way to love you again
I'm finding my way to forgive you
I'm finding my way in the dark lake, I'm
But at least I am finding it with you

(Ooh, ooh)
I know what I'm doing
(Ooh, ooh)
I know where I'm going

(Finding my way back to love)
And you shown me how
(Finding my way back to love)
And you shown me how
(Finding my way back to love)
Whoo

I'm finding my way to love you again
I'm finding my way to forgive you
I'm finding my way in the dark lake, I'm
But at least I am finding it with you

I'm finding my way to love you again
I'm finding my way to forgive you
I'm finding my way in the dark lake, I'm

But at least I am finding it with you
But at least I am finding it with you

I'm finding my way
