

No Power On Earth

The Platters

No power on earth
Can destroy
All the joy
That I feel about you
No, oh no, no power on Earth

No Lover has known
Love like mine
Faith like mine
What can make me doubt you?
Oh, oh no, no power on Earth

For with your lips to my lips I grow stronger
Then any mountain reaching for the sky
And if the Sun seems to shine so much longer
I look at you and darling I know why

No power on earth
Can undo
Loving you
I'd be lost without you
No, oh no, no power on Earth

For with your lips to my lips I grow stronger
Then any mountain reaching for the sky
And if the Sun seems to shine so much longer
I look at you and darling I know why

No power on earth
Can undo
Loving you
I'd be lost without you
No, oh no, no power on Earth
