

Runaway

The Plot in You

Thrown me away
Paralyze me I'm realizing
Day by day it passes by me uninviting

Counting the days
You're running away from me
Running from everything
Doubting my faith in everything I believe
Taken so casually

Maybe it's just in my head
Or all the cruel things that we've said
I'm not a fool and I am no pawn in your game
Running away
Trying to get away from me
Running away
Trying to get the best of me

Counting the days
You're running away from me
Running from everything
Doubting my faith in everything I believe
Taken so casually

Losing my faith
I'm losing my faith in you

Numb to the pain from all the disappointment

I'm ashamed, I'm afraid of my options
I'm a loose end
I'm a dead beat
I'm the one writing words cause I can't sleep
Numb
Numb to all the pain
You can live with regret
I'll hang myself up to dry

Till then I'm counting the days
You're running away from me
Running from everything
Doubting my faith in everything I believe
Taken so casually
Losing my faith
I'm losing faith in you
