

Time Changes Everything

The Plot in You

I let my days slip away
We swore we'd never change
And we'd stay the say
But time changes everything

Let my head get in the way
Kept getting wasted and pilled out
The highs that I feel now are nothing the same
Keep to myself
Keep ignoring my health
While you all play it safe
Cause I never felt so alive
No I never felt so alive

I let my days slip away
I swore we'd never change
And we'd stay the say
But time changes everything

Let my head get in the way
I kept her cumming for days
I'm just the ghost of a good fuck
It's all just a phase
Swallow my pride
Watch the ones that I can't touch
As I drift away
Fade away
Can't forgive myself
Can't forget yesterday

I let my days slip away
We swore we'd never change
And we'd stay the say
But time changes everything

Sink into a place
Into a self induced coma
Hear the walls sing
Clench your fists and just float on
Cause I never felt so alive
No I never felt so alive
