

Shut Up!

The Poodles

Well when I see light you are black as night
When I'm happy; you want me sad
If I see great possibilities
Well, you tell me that it's really bad

It's been a long, long time I should know better
You want to speak your mind? Write me a letter!
Oh, let's make it clear

Ref.
You see the colors of the rainbow in black and white
You're in the sunlight, still in shadow - never satisfied
So sorry if I may seem rude and a little impolite
But there is one thing that I highly would appreciate
If you could only
Shut up!

So hold your tongue and stop right here
I didn't ask for your advice
It's nothing new and your witless mind is spreading a pack of lies

It's been a long, long time I should know better
You want to speak your mind? Write me a letter!
Oh, let's make it clear

Ref.
You see the colors of the rainbow in black and white
You're in the sunlight, still in shadow - never satisfied
So sorry if I may seem rude and a little impolite
But there is one thing that I highly would appreciate
If you could only
Shut up!

Don't say a word
I'm leaving
Let's make it clear
