

Birth

The Project Hate MCMXCIX

They're swarming upon us like locusts
The cancer of Christ
These sickening ways of Man
The pleasures of His flesh
Unsaved and unblessed
Embrace the arrival of The Beast

They're swarming upon us like locusts
The cancer of God
Spreading lies to Man
The error of His ways is tearing us apart
A carnivore for flesh impure

The destroyer of your will Bring your children, let them come to me
I, the taker of all life
Awakened and enlightened in this, our final hour
Where darkness makes us one

Now we are one, with this I have become your death
It has begun, with this I have won
It's never over, with this we are done
In this we're everyone, in this we are but none
We are but none, in this we are but none
We are one

Woe, I mean you no harm
Still you cry for me
Woe, I've no part in this
Praise Dii Inferi

Granting them their silence through tongues that speak of harlotry Bringing back their glory by cleansing them of purity
Granting them their silence
through tongues that speak to none but me Bring them back to glory by relieving them of everything

They're swarming upon us like locusts as the whoring cunts they are
The disease of Christ
The eternal fall of Man
The pleasure of their death
Strengthening our souls
Unsaved and unblessed
Welcome the birth of The Beast

This is the end of the beginning
When the end comes, a new reality
When the end comes, a birth in infamy
When the end comes, a new reality
As we welcome Purgatory
