

The Great Retaliation Is Upon Them

The Project Hate MCMXCIX

Feed my anger now, growing strong inside
King of kings is dead, The One is alive
Burning in my veins, there's no fear in Him
Christianity, what have you ever done for me?
Blessed be humanity, hear me speak in tongues
The word of the Devil, hear and believe
Your lord of lies has fallen, the bastard son is dead
I am the word of the Devil, come to me
Blessed be humanity, what have you ever done for me?
Untamed and free, cold hearted king, inhuman slayer
Through centuries of lying, death and deceit
Time has come for the revelation of man
The page must be turned, this mockery reversed
See us now invoking the beast
Could this be the end of the soulless weak?
Could this be the end?
Almighty Father what have you done?
What have you done to your one and only son?
Almighty Father what have you done?
What have you done to your one and only son?
Condemned to die, His blood is all lies Thy fools just keep praying
I am the God, there's no salvation
There's no hope for fools
Heaven is dead and so are your words
A sheep in the herd, retaliation absurd

[Solo: Danny Tunker]

Courageous whores, sheep among wolves
Rest eternally in your savior's tomb
Embraced by the light of Christ, blinded by ignorance
From death to the womb
Obey me, feel the suffering, suffocate in doom
Silent words speak of silent deeds
The storms of centuries speak to me Silent deeds speak of silent needs, I bring hell to thee
I am hell!
Blood of Christ, vermin son of God, preach the gospel
Bring forth darkness and gracious temptation

[Solo: Danny Tunker]

I am hell! I'm the enemy of Christ, war and pride
The moon now is bloody red, I am hell!
My path is filled with hate and revenge, black wings
You will pay an infernal truth, I am hell!
I'm the enemy of Christ, war and pride, I am hell!
The moon now is bloody red Behold the burning of your wings, you will never fly again
Relive the crucifixion, relive the pain
Holy ground soaked in blood, a glorious sight for our eyes

Celebrate the victory when the Father of Lies finally dies

[Solo: Danny Tunker]

Look at you now, look at your scars
Mourn your beloved ones fallen in war
I will show you sights you thought you'd never see
I will show you the face of your true enemy
Could this be the end of the soulless weak?
Could this be the end?
Almighty Father what have you done?
What have you done to your one and only son?
Almighty Father what have you done?
What have you done to your one and only son?
I am hell
