

No Surprise

The Prostitutes

Well it comes as no surprise
Quite honestly It was just what you was predicted
Don't think that you'll find
A closer friend than I

You see right through my lies
Just tell me exactly what I'm thinking
You can read the signs
So please make up your mind

You'd like to help but I think that you'll agree
There's nothing for you and nothing for me
Well it comes as no surprise
Is it time to say goodbye ?

Well Your showed me all the signs
There's no point in even just pretending
I think that you'll find
We're better off this time

When you look into my eyes
Just tell me exactly what I'm thinking
You have to draw the line
So please make up your mind

You'd like to help but I think that you'll agree
There's nothing for you and nothing there for me
Well it comes as no surprise
Well it comes as no surprise
Well it comes as no surprise

You understood the signals that Im sending
Better off next time
It's time to say bye bye

You see right through my lies
Just tell me exactly what I'm thinking
You have to draw the line
Well it comes as no surprise

I 'd like to help but I think you will agree
Theres nothing for you and theres nothing for me
I 'd like to help but I think that you should know
Its all over now, its all over now
Well it comes as no surprise
Well it comes as no surprise
