

Revenge is mine

The Quakes

You double-crossed me and you thought you could get away
But I know all about the things you do and all the things you say

The plans are set in stone and revenge is mine tonight

A lot of time has passed, but you can bet we won't forget
You thought you'd got away, but you're gonna get yours
yet

I got an army of cats

1000 strong

Their arms are at my command and revenge is mine tonight

Tonight

Tonight

Revenge is mine tonight

Tonight...
