You double-crossed me and you thought you could get away But I know all about the things you do and all the things you say

The plans are set in stone and revenge is mine tonight

A lot of time has passed, but you can bet we won't forget You thought you'd got away, but you're gonna get yours yet

I got an army of cats 1000 strong

Their arms are at my command and revenge is mine tonight

The plans are set in stone and revenge is mine tonight
Tonight
Tonight
Revenge is mine tonight
Tonight...
