

Ignorance Is Bliss

The Red Jumpsuit Apparatus

Hold on tight, I'm not exactly sure what's going to happen

I guess I'm overrated and I
Should back but I'm too blind
But I'm too stubborn, too hardheaded
And I just suffered another life

Who know where we'd go from here
You wonder what you're still seeing
I followed the rabbit hole, as far down as it takes me

You think you know the right thing

Everyone prays to God to save their lives
Do you actually think that you're the only
One who knows how to lie?

I'm no saint, you are no preacher
And I don't live the perfect life
But I put my faith in something greater
Than anything money can buy

When you wake up from here
You wonder what you're still seeing
I followed the rabbit hole, as far down as it takes me

Everyone prays to God to save their lives
Do you actually think that you're the only
One who knows how to lie?

Under this, my sun, you might not see tomorrow
When it's said and done and there's no more time to borrow
Who will be the one to save you from your sorrow?

Everyone prays to God to save their lives
Do you actually think that you're the only
One who knows how to lie?
