

Comin' Home

The Rembrandts

Sittin' at the gate, I didn't have a reservation
Couldn't turn away hopin' for cancellation
Take me to the sky take me to my inspiration
Only one more day

I'm divin' through the sky, ah thinkin' 'bout situation
I thought that I would die laughin' at the complication
I couldn't sleep a wink wonderin' what I would say to you
Only one more day, and I'll be on my way

And with the love I long to hold
Oh there's nothin' like the feelin'
Of comin' home, I'm comin' home

I'm at the carousel I see you from across the station
Somethin' in my eye, or is it my imagination?
It's been a long time we got, a lot of catchin' up to do
Only one more day, I'll be here to stay

And with the love I long to hold
No there's nothin' like the feelin'
Of comin' home, 'cause I'm comin' home
Comin' home, oh baby I'm comin' home
Coming home I'm comin' home
I'm coming home to you

What a holiday we're gonna have a celebration
Everybody sing everybody's jubiliatin'
Have another drink I didn't mean to keep you waitin'
Only one more day, and I'll be on my way
But you'll never be alone, if you save the love you're feelin'

Till I get home,
'Cause I'm comin' home
Comin' home
Whoa baby I'm comin' home to you now
