

Backwards

The Restarts

There's no fucking way, I refuse to look back when it comes to your dogma we're on the attack you're the millstone tied around our necks but we're bound and gagged - politically correct

You're too scared to look inside prefer to obey your brainwashed lie you're too scared to self analyse believing instead in your diatribe

No No No No No - we're trying to move forward
No No No No No - you're taking us backwards
No No No No No - we're trying to move forward
No No No No No - we're not going back!

We're still hacking off heads and dropping bombs blinded by faith from the rights and wrongs it's used as a tool manipulation brainwashed into sexual castration
