

Don't listen coz they're full of shit
Don't need someone telling you that you don't fit
You don't meet the status quo
Don't got the right cloths you ain't in the know
Got my music and I got my escape
Your transparent world I just cant take
Acting like a stray but thats okay
Coz I didn't really wanna belong anyway

Coz I'm an Outsider

Don't understand these changes inside
Or how it feels like when worlds collide
Judgmental click which you'll never fit
Vacant outsider degenerate
Look you up and down with blinded eyes
Scapegoating you with their ignorant minds
Flip 'em the V 'n let it all hang out
This is wot living life's all about

Sexuality within, colour of your skin
Body shape or place of origin
All ammunition for the other side
Protecting their own pain deep inside
Social norms and moral codes
These justifications soon will implode
I'm anti religion and anti state anti greed and anti hate

OUTSIDER - something burning burning inside
OUTSIDER - it's a freedom freedom denied
OUTSIDER - it's your life claim it back
OUTSIDER - th'e whole worlds under attack
