

Congratulations

The Rolling Stones

Congratulations
Congratulations
Well done, my friend
You've done it again
You've gone and broken another heart
Yeah, you've torn it apart

You've done it before
Hope to do it some more
You've got it down to a fine art

Remember the first time
You tried to do it to me
My girl won't fall
Just wait and see
Just wait and see

Congratulations
Congratulations
You've gone and broken another heart
Yeah, you've torn it apart

La la, la la la, la la la la (congratulations)
