It's Not Easy

The Rolling Stones

It's not easy It's not easy living on your own It's not easy It's not easy living on your own And it's hard (it's not easy) And it's hard (it's not easy) And it's a pretty hard thing (it's not easy) It's not easy living on your own All of the things that you used to do If they're done now, well they're done by you It seems a big failing in a man To take his girl for granted if he can And it's hard thing (it's not easy) And it's hard (it's not easy) And it's a pretty hard thing (it's not easy) It's not easy livin' on your own There's no place where you can call home Got me running like a cat in a thunderstorm Just a big bed and a telephone Like the last remnants of a stately home And it's a pretty hard thing (it's not easy) And it's hard (it's not easy) Well, it's a pretty hard thing (it's not easy) It's not easy livin' on your own And it's hard (it's not easy) And it's hard (it's not easy) And it's a pretty hard thing (it's not easy) It's not easy living on your own Sit here thinking with your head of fire Go think the same thing and never tire Imaginin' the glow of her long clean hair As she goes to sit on her own high chair And it's hard thing (it's not easy) Well, it's a pretty hard thing (it's not easy) Well, it's hard babe (it's not easy) It's not easy livin' on your own It's not easy (a pretty tough thing) It's not easy (well, life pretty rough) It's not easy (it's a hard time baby) It's not easy (it's a hard time baby) It's not easy (it's a pretty hard life)
