

Recipe for Love

The Ronettes

Two cups of kisses, one cup of hugs
Teaspoon of teardrops, stars from above
Mix 'em together and what have you got?
You got, you got
You got the recipe for love

One pinch of heartaches, two cups of pain
One dash of sunshine, two cups of rain
Mix 'em together and what have you got?
You got, you got
You got the recipe for love

When I first saw you, I knew it had to be Because you've got what it takes to make a lovin' cake for me
Now wait a second, baby

Why waste a minute? Let's take a chance
We got the ingredients to start a romance
Let's get together; you know what we got
You got, we got
We got the recipe for love

Two cups of kisses, one cup of hugs
