

(I'm) Misunderstood

The Saints

I stand alone now I don't run
I don't care nothing for your seventh son
I've been misunderstood for too long
Been screaming loud but I ain't been heard sometimes I wonder if it's worth the words
I've been misunderstood for too long You're all talking about better days if I got one I think I'd go insane
I've been misunderstood for too long
Been screaming loud but I ain't been heard
I've been misunderstood for too long
I tell you babe it just ain't right
I sit & dream about you every night still I can't get ya....
