What Am I Gonna Do

The Saturdays

I got my eyes locked over there On my new obsession Like a vibrance in my head Stealing my attention

Before the moment I can't go over It's gonna test my patience Insane, I can't control it What am I gonna do?

Should I wait my turn or take a chance on you (Crazy) What am I gonna do?
'Cause it's late at night and there ain't no time to lose (So crazy) What am I gonna do?

Dirty sounds across the lights Tryin' to build this tension Putting thoughts into his mind Looking my direction

Feeling good, I know I should Don't wanna wait forever Insane, I can't resist it What am I gonna do?

I just can't take no more
My dirty secrets knocking at the door
And if I leave, I'll never go, yeah
Is it so bad to lose control?

[Chorus]
