

Glad All Over

The Searchers

Ain't no doubt about it, it must be love
One little kiss from you and I feel
Glad all over, ooh mercy
Hot dang dilly, it's so silly
But I'm glad all over

I get goose pimples, baby, 'cause I'm feeling so good
When you cuddle me like you do and I feel
Glad all over, ooh mercy
Hot dang dilly it's so silly
But I'm glad all over

I'm tryin' to tell you I'm cookin' inside
When we're cheek to cheek
My temperature's low, but my fever's hot
I'm so weak, I can't speak

Come on honey bunny, kiss me one more time
Every time you do, well I feel
Glad all over, ooh mercy
Hot dang dilly, it's so silly
But I'm glad all over
(Never talking to me)

Well, your touch goes through me like electric fire
And every part of me glows
It don't take much lookin' to see what you got
'Cause it shows, it shows

Well, come on honey bunny, change me one more time
Every time you do, well I feel
Glad all over, ooh mercy
Hot dang dilly, it's so silly
But I'm glad all over
Hot dang dilly, it's so silly
But I'm glad all over
Hot dang dilly, it's so silly
But I'm glad all over
