

I Pretend I'm With You

The Searchers

Whenever there's a day when I feel sad, there's something that can stop me feeling blue.
It makes me feel like things are not so bad,
I pretend I'm with you.

Just to make me happy for a time,
I think of all the things we used to do.
I make believe you're in these arms of mine,
I pretend I'm with you.

I can't stop thinking that I'll see you soon,
I'm thinking every minute of the day.
'Cause I know each second brings me near to you,
soon I'll be in your arms to stay.
