

The Shores of Avalon

The Seekers

This boat that I am rowing
Will take you where I'm going
To peaceful waters flowing
On the shores of Avalon

There lies within each troubled heart
A special time and place apart
No storm is ever raging
On the shores of Avalon

This boat that I am rowing
Will take you where I'm going
To peaceful waters flowing
On the shores of Avalon

Clear dreams shall always guide our eyes
A ray of hope before us lies
Where all is calm forever
On the shores of Avalon

This boat that I am rowing
Will take you where I'm going
To peaceful waters flowing
On the shores of Avalon

Where all is calm forever
On the shores of Avalon
To journey's end together
On the shores of Avalon
