

Till My Baby Comes Home

The Shirelles

Not sure girl, been gone for long long still
And now the Romeos are knocking and ringin' my bell
They just keep hangin' around
Steady to right to break me down

Oh but their ain't gonna be no love
No no no no no no no no
There ain't gonna be no love
Till my baby comes home

Temptation comes creeping into my mind
I'm only human and I'm feelin' weak sometimes
When you're waitin' for a special guy
You wanted to trust and satisfy
