

Death Finds Us Breathing

The Showdown

I would sleep without dreams and know everything
As death finds us breathing and all but believing
We sleep and we dream in the arms of the sea
Drowning in days
Ungrateful, the lifeless, the ocean held in sway
Torrential, a creature but for faith
As we breathe in and lash out a juggernaut of days
Release us unto death, oh release us this age
Plunge us into the deep, left anchored with dreams
As death finds us pleading for all we believed in
We breathe in the sea and our lungs feel deceived
'Cause the drowning can't leave
Ungrateful, the lifeless, the ocean held in sway
Torrential, a creature but for faith
As we breathe in and lash out a juggernaut of days
Release us unto death, oh release us this age
Count our lungs deceived
 (Plunge us into the deep)
The drowning cannot leave
 (Take our breath away)
Count our lungs deceived
 (Plunge us into the deep)
The drowning cannot leave
 (Take our breath away)
Ungrateful, the lifeless, the ocean held in sway
Torrential, a creature but for faith
As we breathe in and lash out a juggernaut of days
Release us unto death, oh release us this age
