

Lake of Sorrow

The Sins of Thy Beloved

Male voice

You've buried me down
To hold my eyes at the lake of sorrow
There is no vision of my eyes
Take me and make us one

See the shadow of my obsession
Knowing her so well
Let your visions know the passion
I feel this lost, oh, take away, away...

Female voice

In this life I feel lust for you
All those times
I've been praying for your love
In your eyes
I see love and innocence
But I still I do not know
And I'm loving you?
Still I want your touch
Are you loving me?
Do you want me too?
We are lost in our own paradise
Come on follow my words and we will fly

Male voice

You've buried me down
And your life will cry
And I crave for my love
I long for you

Female voice

We are lost in our own paradise
Come on follow my words and we will fly
If love is for real
We might relive
All alone is not for real
Why don't you take me far away?
