

Come Back Baby

The Slackers

Where are you tonight my love?
This I'm asking to the stars up above
When will you be coming home?
'Cause I'm afraid to be alone

Long before we met that summer
I was sure I would never love another
Now I know I was wrong, so wrong
My honey why you gone so long?

Come back baby, come back baby
Come back baby, the joke is done, now come on home
Distance makes a heart grow fonder
But honey you don't have to wander
To make me say those three words...

My head is heavy, my heart is filled with pain
And I fear that feeling will remain
Go to sleep, go to sleep, I pray you find the one
And then I'll dream you're in my arms
And I'll keep asking you...

Come back baby, come back baby
Come back baby, the joke is done, now come on home
Distance makes a heart grow fonder
But honey you don't have to wander
To make me say those three words...

To make me say those three words...
