

I Still Love You

The Slackers

Do you believe
I still love you
After All
You've said and done
There's a whole wide world out there
Full of people who just don't care
Well do you believe
I still love you

Do you believe
You're blessed by God
That your life
Is carried on angel's wings
First you make the master of a slave
A white man dancing on a grave
Well do you believe
That I still love you

Oh now do you believe
That I'll protect you
When the time comes
Oh baby I wont go
No I'm not gonna fight, no I wont bleed
To protect the glory of your creed
Well do you believe
That I still love you
