

The Mummy

The Slackers

Living in a pyramid
If you ask me why I stay
And fill me with such dread
I said why ask about why the nose is always coloured red
I said why
Why cause she's the mummy

He always walks in
From up on that hill
With a beady little triangle egypt eye on the back of your dollar bill
And if the devil himself don't get it
Well lord knows one day i will
I said uhhhhhhhhh watch out
Cause she's a mummy

Some call it robbery
Some call it rape
When he call you up now baby
I figure don't be late
Cause he's gonna wrap you up
In his red red tape when he starts to calculate
I said uhhh
Watch out
Cause she's a mummy (yeah)

When you see him coming
Lord you better get
If you don't know what he want
His name rhymes with it
Mummy
He's going to wrap you up baby
He take your cup ____
I say uhhhhh watch out
cause she's a mummy

So I said if you get scared
About ghouls & ghost
Well he's the one
That you should fear the most
And waiting for your baby
He's waiting for you down on 210 Eastpost Rd
I said uhhhhh watch out
Cause she's a mummy (yeah)
One more time
I said watch out
Cause she's a mummy
I said watch out
Cause she's a mummy
