

Alone At Midnight

The Smithereens

She's written in the wind.
I see her face everywhere I go.
She follows me in my dreams.
I wake with teardrops on my pillow.

Love comes and goes.
Everybody knows
I'm alone at midnight.

I spoke with her on the phone.
It's been three years since we said hello.
The years flow by like a dream.
We talked a while, then she had to go.

Love comes and goes.
Everybody knows
I'm alone at midnight.

Teardrops are falling along down.
My heart is calling to you.
Midnight is calling. I hear the sound
So sad and lonely for you.

If you see her around,
Won't you please tell her I said hello.
The years flow by like a dream.
I wake with teardrops on my pillow.

Love comes and goes.
Everybody knows
I'm alone at midnight.
