

Room Without A View

The Smithereens

In a room without a view
Lots of time, nothing to do
I sit, watch the days go by
I don't need to wonder why

In a room without a view
Lots of time, nothing to do
In a room without a view, without you

This room is the perfect size
And it never tells me lies
Many pleasant memories
All repeating worthlessly

In a room without a view
Lots of time, nothing to do
In a room without a view, without you

here I find security, no problems here for me
This is where I want to be
And whether I like it or not, a room without a view is what I've got

Here I find security, so please don't bother me
This is where I ought to be
And whether I like it or not
A room without a view is what I've got

In a room without a view
Lots of time, nothing to do
I sit, watch the years go by
I don't need to wonder why

In a room without a view
Lots of time, nothing to do
In a room without a view, without you
