

Hello Rain

The Softies

packing boxes all night reading letters from you for the last time for real leaving you behind was easy now I know how little you feel now I wasted all my wishes on you

so goodbye, wishing you well and hello rain I made a paper boat and watched it going down the drain
so goodbye, wishing you well and hello rain

thought I'd thrown them all away finding one last souvenir behind my bureau drawer feeling sad all on my own I don't need you for that anymore and I wasted all my wishes on you

so goodbye, wishing you well and hello rain
I made a paper boat and watched it going down the drain

you can't stand to see me losing all my precious sinlessness now my heart is out of your hands you couldn't possibly want it back any less

now I wasted all my wishes on you
so goodbye, wishing you well and hello rain
I made a paper boat and watched it going down the drain
so goodbye, wishing you well and hello rain goodbye, wishing you well and hello rain
