

A Reason

The Sorrow

Follow the path to ruin
Sail into the storm
Dead rivers flowing
Towards an ocean that is black

Poisoned is what we are
Cursed and condemned is what we are

Standing on the edge of this world
Waiting for the last goodbye
Cry for life in this blackened world

Give me a reason to close my eyes
I crave for angels until my world dies

How could we go on this far?..

Keep us away from this destiny
Guide us to fortune out of the misery

Burn the bridge behind us
With fire in our hearts
Pave the road we walk on
With ashes of our sins

Poisoned is what we are
Cursed and condemned is what we are

Standing on the edge of this world
Waiting for the last goodbye
Cry for life in this blackened world

Give me a reason to close my eyes
I crave for angels until my world dies

I crave for angels
