

Longest Ever Dream

The Sound of Arrows

I fell asleep, fell into the night
Falling so deep, into the night
Thoughts of endlessness
Of peaches and cream
But that was all yesterday
I had the longest ever dream

Yesterday, I had the longest ever dream
Yesterday, I had the longest ever dream

I fell asleep, fell into the night
Falling so deep, into the night
Thoughts of endlessness
Of peaches and cream
But that was all yesterday
I had the longest ever dream

Yesterday, I had the longest ever dream
Yesterday, I had the longest ever dream

And in the dream, I was watching the sky
Falling down, into the night
