

Feel

The Staves

I can't feel it
Now that you've gone
I have made you all that I want
I know you're keeping to your own some
You're running out of sight
When the light goes down

Said you'd be waiting til the night's done
But there's no one

And the world ran on
But I always knew you'd come
(Home)
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
(That I know)
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
(That I know)
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one home

I can feel it coming so clear
I can feel you already there
And I can see you in my eye shot
You're running in my head
And I can't keep up

Said you'd be waiting for the next one
But I always knew
I always knew you'd come
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
(That I know)
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
(That I know)
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Our love was lone so long
And then forgotten
Like a lone song

You said your life went on
That I always knew

I knew you'd come
(Feeling)
(Feeling)
(Feeling)
(Feeling)
I can feel it coming so clear
(Feeling)
(Feeling)
(That I know)
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
(I can feel you already there)
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
(That I know)
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
(That I know)
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
(That I know)
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one feeling
Just one home
