

Trouble on My Mind

The Staves

Trouble on my mind
Trouble on my mind
Trouble on my mind once again

I feel it all the time
I feel it all the time
There's trouble on my mind once again

And you know it when it comes and goes in a way
Leaves you balancing
Could it be a moment golden
I wanna know why I never know it's happening

And there's trouble on my mind
Trouble on my mind
Trouble on my mind once again

And you know it when it holds you under away
Cold and dying
Moving in reverse slow motion
I feel it, it's in my skin, oh it's in a part of me

Trouble on my mind
Trouble on my mind
There's trouble on my mind once again
