

The Day Of Death

The Stone

You know this is the day
You've come here for a fight
Brave men full of themselves but you know this is your final day

You got no chance to prevent the end

Thousand to one like one to thousand
Twisted faces coming to meet their own fate

You are falling to eternity
'cos you're against me
Do you mean this is the holy war
I'm the chosen one
The new messiah

Gotta tell you all
Listen to me

You're trying to kill me but it won't close the opened gate
It's coming

The day of Death
