

My Heart Is Pumping To a Brand New Beat

The Subways

It's really not a mystery
This is how it appears to be
That we have come just far too far now
To be making an adjustment to
All the things that we planned to do
Yeah we have come just far too far now

You can't look me in the eyes
I can't do the same besides
Too late now out of time
So let's see what happens tonight

When you're with me on the dance floor
My heart is pumping to a brand new beat
Everything I ever cared for
Everything I always wanted to be
Don't mean nothing to me any more
When you buckle at your bruising knees
Everything I ever cared for us right here

Did you ever find a line between
Or find some reasoning
Or just an ounce of understanding
Are you making an adjustment to
All the things that we planned to do
Or will we reach some understanding

You can't look me in the eyes
I can't do the same besides
Too late now out of time
So let's see what happens tonight

When you're with me on the dance floor
My heart is pumping to a brand new beat
Everything I ever cared for
Everything I always wanted to be
Don't mean nothing to me any more
When you buckle at your bruising knees
Everything I ever cared for us right here

You've always been my obsession
This brand new beat is obsession

You can't look me in the eyes
I can't do the same besides
Too late now out of time
So let's see what happens tonight

When you're with me on the dance floor
My heart is pumping to a brand new beat
Everything I ever cared for
Everything I always wanted to be
Don't mean nothing to me any more
When you buckle at your bruising knees
Everything I ever cared for us right here

You've always been my obsession
